

TECHNOBIOGRAPHY CHECKLIST

Website Checklist

Study your website. Is it ready for the World Wide Web? Place a checkmark beside each item that is complete. For items missing a checkmark, you will need to make some changes to your website.

	Student	Peer Reviewer
Home Page
Page title describes the content of page
Page includes a brief description about the website
Page includes a picture of the person with a caption
Text is free of spelling and grammar errors
Biography Page
Page title describes the content of page
Facts are organized to tell about the person's life
Information is well written and easy to understand
Text and pictures are arranged to create an appealing layout
Text is free of spelling and grammar errors
Timeline Page
Page title describes the content of page
Events are arranged in chronological order
Events in the timeline are interesting and tell about the person's life
AutoShapes are used to hold each event
Connectors are used to join the AutoShapes to form a timeline
Objects are arranged to create an appealing layout
Text is free of spelling and grammar errors
Source Page
Page title describes the content of page
Information for each source is clearly listed
Sources are organized in a list neatly on the page
Text is free of spelling and grammar errors
Navigation
Buttons are easily identifiable
Navigation buttons and hyperlinks go to the correct destination
Website Design
Publication template is suitable for the topic
Color scheme is appealing
Font scheme uses typefaces that are easy to read
School name, student name, and class are listed on each page
Catchphrase clearly makes a statement about the person
Background complements the publication template and color scheme		