TMC Announces Turn-Around Plan

By Larry Laffoff

TechnoMotor Company (TMC) today announced a turnaround plan to increase its competitiveness. Over the course of the next three years, the company plans to reduce its workforce by 20 percent. This will affect 26,000 people.

TMC has been troubled with lawsuits, declining sales, and resignation of their CEO Frank Fender. The plan to reduce the cost of production, resulting in the company becoming more competitive.
